

NAPCO to Exhibit Innovative Security Product and Service Offerings at ISC East

Company to Showcase Latest Lineup at New York's Javits Center on November 18-19

AMITYVILLE, N.Y., Nov. 5, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- NAPCO Security Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq: NSSC), one of the world's leading solutions providers and manufacturers of high-technology electronic intrusion security with recurring revenues, connected home, video and fire systems, as well as enterprise-class access control and door locking products, today announced that it will exhibit its industry-leading product and service lineup at ISC East, one of the largest security industry trade shows.

"We are excited to showcase our commercial and residential security products at ISC East," said Richard Soloway, NAPCO President and CEO. "Each year, this event provides an exceptional opportunity for thousands of security dealers and attendees to learn more about NAPCO's innovations in access control, connected home, door locking and fire systems, among other categories. This year's event will be no exception as we continue to build upon our legacy of developing offerings that set the standard for technology and quality in our industry. With the increasing occurrence of active shooter situations in schools, NAPCO is working tirelessly to address this accelerating problem through our LocDown™ solutions. We also continue to roll out more recurring revenue products such as commercial fire radios and connected home security systems. With so many positive developments at NAPCO and within the industry as a whole, we encourage interested parties to take advantage of the event to learn more."

Hosted by the Security Industry Association ("SIA"), the leading trade group for electronic and physical security solution providers, ISC East is the largest annual security industry trade show in the northeastern U.S. The event will feature new products and solutions, encompassing everything from surveillance equipment to access control.

During the conference, NAPCO management will be available to provide members of the investment community a tour of the Company's booth and for one-on-one meetings. NAPCO will offer complementary transportation to and from the show for those located in or traveling to the New York Metropolitan area. Please contact NAPCO's Investor Relations team at napco@kcsa.com for details and to RSVP.
