

NAPCO Security Technologies Announces New Products to be shown at the ISC West Trade Show

AMITYVILLE, N.Y., April 3, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- NAPCO Security Technologies (NASDAQ: NSSC) one of the world's leading solutions providers and manufacturers of high-tech electronic intrusion security, IoT connected home, video and fire systems, as well as enterprise-class access control and door locking products today announced it will be exhibiting at the International Security Conference & Exhibition ("ISC West") in Las Vegas from April 5-7 at the Sands Expo Center at Booth 12043.

NAPCO will be showing new products to the attendees such as:

- CA4K, which is our updated software program for Continental Access customers with new features like the ability for real time screening against regional and government databases to pre screen for potential threats.
- The new Dual Path Fire radio which addresses the need in certain markets where it is required for both a cellular and internet signal to be sent to the central station and will generate additional recurring revenues for the Company.
- Our new iLock App which enables a smartphone to lock and unlock the doors with Alarm Lock and Marks locks that are already used in many schools, universities and high rise buildings.

Starlink Connect will be highlighted as well which recently had its full commercial launch in March 2017.

The Starlink Connect cellular radio replaces the need for traditional phone lines with alarm installations. Also this product offering, which will generate a further recurring revenue stream for the Company, gives dealers the ability to upgrade millions of existing alarm systems that are currently installed across the US without the need for replacing existing hardware. Security dealers will be able to offer users the connected home experience with this radio enabling homeowners to control locks, lighting, climate and other functions, while also allowing the homeowner to receive video text alerts. NAPCO 's iBridge® app for smartphones and tablets is used to enable these features and is available for both Apple and Android devices.

Richard Soloway, CEO of NAPCO commented, "We are excited to showcase these new products at ISC West, which is the industry's largest security trade show in the nation, drawing 30,000 plus security professionals each year who represent an estimated $50 billion in buying power."

NAPCO management will be available for one-on-one meetings during the conference. To schedule a meeting please contact Patrick McKillop, Director of Investor Relations at pmckillop@napcosecurity.com or 800-645-9445 ext. 374
