

NAPCO Voted Among Best Intrusion Brands With Industry Titans Honeywell and Bosch

Security Sales & Integration Trade Magazine Survey Results Published in December Edition

AMITYVILLE, N.Y., Jan. 9, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- NAPCO Security Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq: NSSC), one of the world's leading solutions providers and manufacturers of high tech electronic intrusion security, Internet of Things (IoT) connected home, video and fire systems, as well as enterprise-class access control and door locking products, today announced that according to a recent survey completed in the prestigious alarm magazine Security Sales & Integration, NAPCO was named a top brand in the intrusion and alarm detection category.

Security Sales & Integration, one of the most respected industry trade publications recently completed the Brand Leader survey with 75 alarm industry experts. These experts were asked to choose their top brands and cited the following factors: product features, compatibility, reliability, and technical support.

Richard Soloway, CEO of NAPCO commented, "We are very excited to have been chosen one of the top brands by a group of alarm industry experts who completed the recent survey. Additionally, we are proud of the fact that NAPCO achieved recognition as a top security industry brand by this elite group of leading alarm integrators and dealers, which ranked us favorably along with much larger entities such as aerospace & tech-giant, Honeywell Corp. and multi-national conglomerate, Bosch. NAPCO's brand has a long history in the security industry and the result of this survey reaffirms our belief that we are on the top strata of alarm intrusion technology. Our employees work diligently every day to bring the best experience to our dealers / integrators and their end-users by continually pioneering new products to seamlessly operate across our integrated systems of intrusion, locking and access alarm, a fusion of technology that no competitor can match. Security Sales & Integration has a very large subscriber base numbering approximately 281,000, so NAPCO's high ranking will be brought to the attention of many new dealers and integrators across the US."
